FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Edge Foundation Welcomes Sybil Mimy Wells as CEO to Lead Its Next Chapter of Growth and Impact

Veteran nonprofit and education leader brings more than 20 years of experience in youth development, organizational growth and community impact

Sybil Mimy Wells
Chief Executive Officer
Edge Foundation

SEATTLE, Washington - August 2026 - The Edge Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping young people and adults strengthen the executive functioning skills essential for success in school, work and life, has named Sybil Mimy Wells as its Chief Executive Officer.

Wells brings more than 20 years of executive leadership experience across the nonprofit, education and youth development sectors. Throughout her career, she has led organizational growth, strengthened fundraising efforts and built strategic partnerships that expand opportunities for young people and underserved communities.

> “I am thrilled to welcome Sybil Mimy Wells as the new CEO of the Edge Foundation. Sybil brings not only more than two decades of exceptional leadership in education, nonprofit organizations and youth development, but also a deep personal commitment to helping young people discover what they are capable of achieving. I founded Edge with the belief that every young person deserves someone in their corner, helping them develop the skills and confidence to move forward in life. Sybil shares that belief, and I am excited about the energy, experience and vision she brings to the next chapter of Edge.”
>
> - Neil Peterson, Founder and Chairman, Edge Foundation

The leadership transition comes as Edge looks to broaden the reach and impact of its executive function coaching programs and build new partnerships with schools, community organizations, funders and other organizations serving young people and adults.

“I am honored to lead the Edge Foundation and build upon the extraordinary vision Neil Peterson established,” said Wells. “Edge has demonstrated the power that coaching and supportive relationships can have in helping people, especially at-need youth, develop the skills, confidence, and agency to move forward. I look forward to working with our coaches, partners, supporters, and communities to bring that opportunity to many more people.”

ABOUT SYBIL MIMY WELLS

Before joining Edge, Wells held executive leadership positions with organizations including United Way NYC, BUILD NYC, Hofstra University, Farmingdale State College, Project Grad Long Island and the Boys & Girls Club of the Bellport Area. Her experience encompasses nonprofit management, organizational development, entrepreneurship, change leadership, youth development, community engagement and social impact.

Wells holds a master's degree in Educational Administration and certificates in Nonprofit Leadership and Executive Leadership from the Yale School of Management. She is a certified Prosci Change Practitioner and is also an educator, community service advocate and motivational speaker.

ABOUT THE EDGE FOUNDATION

Founded by Neil Peterson, the Edge Foundation helps individuals strengthen the executive functioning skills that enable them to plan, prioritize, organize, manage time, follow through and successfully pursue their goals. Through specialized coaching and partnerships with schools and community organizations, Edge works to ensure that people who struggle with executive function challenges have the support and tools they need to realize their potential.

MEDIA AND PARTNERSHIP INQUIRIES
Edge Foundation
Seattle, Washington
edgefoundation.org